MICROFILM

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

INTRODUCTION

Recollections of a surgeon who served under Sherman in Georgia. Describes army life, battles, impressions of the South, and the war in Missouri. Recalls Indiana childhood. Comments on experiences at Post Hospital, Warrensburg, after the war, including vigilante action against former rebels.

DONOR INFORMATION

The collection was donated to the University of Missouri by the Kansas State Historical Society on 2 November 1977 (Accession No. 4121). An addition was purchased on 6 February 1978 from the Kansas State Historical Society (Accession No. 4142).

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection consists of two volumes. Volume 1 is on microfilm and volume 2 is in 16 folders. Folder 16 contains a table of contents for both volumes.
