INTRODUCTION

The papers contain the reminiscences of Mary Anne Phelps Montgomery, daughter of John Smith Phelps, Missouri congressman and governor. Recorded by her daughter, the reminiscences cover Montgomery's childhood on a plantation near Springfield, Missouri; her marriage to James Montgomery, a railroad entrepreneur and early Portland, Oregon, settler; her travels in Europe; and her friendship with Ulysses S. Grant.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Margaret Montgomery Zogbaum in 1967 (Accession No. 486).
