This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shresearch@umsystem.edu.

Introduction

Betsy Wade wrote a travel column for The New York Times, was head of the Times foreign copy desk during the Vietnam War, and an editor of the Pentagon Papers. The collection largely concerns the Journalism and Women Symposium. Correspondence, newsletters, and audio cassettes are also included.

Restriction

During the lifetime of the donor, correspondence between the donor and Rosemary Armao cannot be viewed or copied without written permission from the donor.

Box List

Box 1

Journalism and Women Symposium (JAWS)

Beach JAWS, 2001
2003-2004
JAWS-Times, Sheila Rule, etc.
Correspondence
Fall Camps, 2003-2004 (2 folders)
Financial, 1998
1995
Estes Park group photo, 1989
Pre-JAWS, 1998
Yellowstone, 1997
Waterton/Pre-JAWS, 1995 (2 folders)
Joan Cook Fund

Correspondence and newsletters
UNFPA State of World Population 2004
American University journalism

Box 2

JAWS

JAWS 1996 and pre-trip to Calistoga (includes photos)
Photos
Earrings, 1997-1998
1999 Sundance and Pre-JAWS
Joan Cook’s service
2004 (2 folders)
Mishmosh
Port Ludlow and Vancouver, 2000
2001
ACCESSION CA6162
WADE, BETSY, PAPERS

Miscellaneous
Kit
Banff trip and 2003
Correspondence, 1994-1995
Notebook
Cuttin’ the Rug Under the Moonlit Sky by Sharony Andrews Green

Box 3
Journalism and Women Symposium (JAWS)
  Miscellaneous material (2 folders)
  Fall symposiums, 2007-2012 (6 folders)

Ellis Unp/AV
Audiocassettes
  a.c. 1 - Joan Cook Memorial a.c. 2 - Elizabeth Wade and Joan Cook, “Our Shot at History,” May 1, 1986