This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

Introduction
Papers include biographical writings, correspondence with daughter, drawings and sketches, and war journal of a Kansas City, Missouri, man who served in France during World War I. Jones later moved to St. Louis and worked for the Chase Bag Company.

Box List

Box 1
Biographical sketch
Drawings of childhood home, sports photos, early family, etc.
Partial biography through high school – 1915
Pictures, sketches, and manuscript of war journal
Letters to daughter, 1939-1959 (2 folders)
War writings and book (including battlefield notes written after Armistice, 1919, Sommedieu, France)
Sketches, 1960s
Miscellaneous pictures from later in life
Medals, pins, and miscellaneous artifacts (mostly WWI and sports)
Audio tape – Dad’s best tape, Feb. 1966