Introduction
Records of the organization include home surveys and photographs of urban renewal areas, disposition of properties, HUD board minutes, hearings, retreats, audio cassettes, newspaper clippings, and correspondence.

Organizational Sketch
Founded in 1956, the Housing Authority of the City of Columbia, Missouri, provides affordable housing to low-income families and individuals in Columbia and Boone County. The Columbia Housing Authority is governed by a five-member Board of Commissioners appointed by the mayor of the City of Columbia.
