Introduction
Approximately 1.5 cu. ft.

The papers of Herbert and Brita Horowitz consist largely of programs, bulletins and other materials from the Temple Congregation B’nai Jehudah, where they were long-time members. Also included are audio cassette tapes, a photograph, newspaper clippings and a plastic shovel from a groundbreaking ceremony.

Herbert, an attorney with Horowitz and Schurin, P.C., and lifelong Kansas City resident, was active in the Jewish community as well as the Temple Congregation B’nai Jehudah. He served a three year term as president of Jewish Vocational Services, as well as various roles with the Jewish Community Relations Bureau and NTL Council of Christian and Jews. Herbert died in 1989.

Brita (Lion) Horowitz, came to the United States from Stockholm, Sweden in 1954. She married Herbert Horowitz, and they raised two children, Daniel and Lisa. In 1975 Brita earned her Master’s in Social Work from the University of Kansas. She became a social worker for the Visiting Nurses Association, retiring in 2001. In 2002, she joined the newly established department of social work at Temple B’nai Jehudah. At that time she also participated in the para-rabbinic program at the temple.
