

Information Sheet

R Greene County (Mo.).
321 Militia exemption roll, ca. 1863.
 One folder, photocopies.

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

This is an "Assessment Roll of Exemptions from Military Duty," for Greene County, Missouri, ca. 1863. The list bears the names of individuals who paid a tax in lieu of militia service during the Civil War, the fees paid, and the units from which exemptions were granted. Most exemptions were from duty in the 72nd and 74th regiments of Enrolled Missouri Militia.

The 72nd and 74th regiments were raised in accordance with Missouri militia laws of 1862. The units were organized in December 1862 at Springfield, the headquarters of the 4th Military District of Missouri. They were commanded by Colonels Henry Sheppard and Marcus Boyd, respectively. Both regiments served during Marmaduke's raid into southwestern Missouri, and were engaged at the Battle of Springfield on 8 January 1863.

r388 12 October 1987 Greene County Clerk's office Gift

Index Cards

Draft--Missouri--Greene County.
Enrolled Missouri Militia—72nd Regiment [SEE Missouri. Militia. Enrolled Regiment, 72nd.].
Enrolled Missouri Militia—74th Regiment [SEE Missouri. Militia. Enrolled Regiment, 74th.].
Greene County (Mo.)—History—Civil War, 1861-1865.
Missouri. Militia. Enrolled Regiment, 72nd.
Missouri. Militia. Enrolled Regiment, 74th.
Missouri—History—Civil War, 1861-1865.
Springfield (Mo.)—History—Civil War, 1861-1865.
United States—History—Civil War, 1861-1865.