This is an historical pageant written by Muriel E. Akers for the United Methodist Church at Caledonia, Washington County, Missouri. The pageant celebrated the bicentennial of Methodism in America, 1984.

The pageant commemorated the founding and growth of the Methodist church in Caledonia and the Bellevue Valley of Washington County, Missouri. It featured six acts based on historical figures and events in the valley. The characters included William and Joseph Reed, Miles Goforth, Joseph McMurtrey, Robert Crown, Ananias McCoy, William Woods, and Horace and Harriett Long.

The script for the pageant was authored by Muriel E. Akers, a resident of Caledonia and member of the Caledonia United Methodist Church. The pageant was staged on 17 June 1984 at Caledonia.
