This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shresearch@umsystem.edu.

These are six souvenir programs, for the 1968, 1970, 1971, 1975, 1977, and 1978 seasons, for performances of “The Shepherd of the Hills,” an outdoor drama based upon the novel by Harold Bell Wright. It was presented at The Old Mill Theatre on the Shepherd of the Hills Farm near Branson in Taney County, Missouri.

Hal Meadows adapted the novel for the stage and directed these performances. The producer was Mark Trimble. The programs are similar, each presenting an historical background to the story, photographs from the production, lists of cast members with photographic portraits, and illustrations from the tourist areas of southwestern Missouri and northwestern Arkansas.

Index Cards

- Anderson, Clay M.
- Gideon, Gene
- Ingenthron, Elmo, 1911-
- McRaven, Charles
- Meadows, Hal
- Shepherd of the Hills Historical Society
- Taney County (Mo.)
- Theater, Open-air—Missouri—Taney County
- Trimble, Bruce R. (Bruce Raymond), 1900-
- Trimble, Mark
- Wright, Harold Bell, 1872-1944