This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

This is a brochure for Shepherd of the Hills Estates, a real estate development at Forsyth in Taney County, Missouri. Although undated, it appears to be from the late 1920s.

According to the brochure, Shepherd of the Hills Estates was a “high class development for year-around homes as well as a real summer resort section on Lake Taneycomo.” The manager was Rex Allaman. This illustrated pamphlet includes photographs of the main entrance/sales office, Shadow Rock, and a “bird's eye view of beautiful Forsyth, Missouri, our neighbor on the east, taken from our property.” Textual and visual clues suggest a publication date in the late 1920s.

Index Cards

Allaman, Rex
Forsyth (Mo.)
Real estate development—Missouri—Taney County
Shepherd of the Hills Estates
Taney County (Mo.)
Taneycomo, Lake (Mo.)
White River (Ark. and Mo.)