This is the program for the “Grand Opening” of the USO Club at Malden in Dunklin County, Missouri, on 11 August 1943. Captain Olin Brigman was the Club Director.

The USO Club at Malden, Missouri, held its “Grand Opening” celebration on Wednesday, 11 August 1943. The club was located at 101 N. Madison, and Capt. Olin Brigman was the Club Director. The U.S. Army Air Force maintained a training airfield near Malden, and the 404th AAF Orchestra provided the music for the event. Malden Mayor G. H. Anderson made the welcoming remarks, followed by addresses by Capt. Clarence H. Moss, Cpl. Donald Gillard, and the Salvation Army’s Divisional Commander, Brigadier A. E. Ramsdale of St. Louis. A “big street dance” followed the ceremonies.
