This is a small pamphlet that provides a meeting schedule, program topics, and a list of officers for the Woman’s Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church at Springfield in Greene County, Missouri, for July 1904 through March 1905.

Mrs. F. E. Gates served as President of the Woman’s Missionary Society for 1904-1905. The membership met on the second Friday of each month to discuss mission work, usually concerning efforts in other states, countries, and continents. The Society was “auxiliary to the Missouri Home Missionary Union and to the Missouri Branch of the Woman’s Board of the Interior (for Foreign Missionary work).
