This is a program for a vocal concert presented by baritone Nelson Eddy at Memorial Hall in Joplin, Jasper County, Missouri, on Tuesday evening, 20 April 1937.

Mrs. Jay L. Wilder was the director of Joplin’s All Star Concert Series. This vocal concert by popular baritone Nelson Eddy, accompanied by pianist Theodore Paxson, concluded the 1936-1937 season. The eight-page program includes a list of musical works performed by Eddy, advertisements for local businesses, and a subscription form for the 1937-1938 season. There is a photographic portrait of Eddy on the front page.
