This is a souvenir booklet for the school year 1921-1922 at the Roscoe School in Roscoe Township in St. Clair County, Missouri. The teacher was Ida J. Porter. Included are the names of the pupils and the members of the school board.

Roscoe School was in Consolidated District No. 1 of St. Clair County, Missouri. Ida J. Porter was the teacher in Room No. 1, which she apparently styled as “Studyville.” This booklet includes a photographic portrait of Ida Porter and the names of all 33 pupils in the room, as well as the six members of the school board. The remainder of the booklet contains inspirational poetry and writings.
