This is a “souvenir” of the 1903-1904 school year at Pleasant Dale School in Barry County, Missouri. Clinton Marbut was the teacher and E. W. Walker was District Clerk.

This single-sided “souvenir” was originally probably part of a larger item, as it contains the name of the district, the teacher, and the school board, but not the names of the students. Pleasant Dale School, located southeast of Monett in northern Barry County, was Barry County School District No. 3. The 1903-1904 school term lasted from 7 September until 19 February. Members of the school board were John Callan, G. W. McIntosh, and W. A. Weisman.
