This is an undated campaign card for Isom P. Langley, Republican candidate for Missouri’s 16th District seat in the United States House of Representatives. Langley was from Mountain Grove in Wright County, Missouri.

Isom P. Langley was born in Clark County, Arkansas, on 2 September 1851, the son of Samuel S. Langley and the former Mary Jane Browning. He became a minister of the gospel, serving as pastor of the First Baptist Church at Beebe in White County, Arkansas, and performing a marriage on 27 December 1876 in Caddo Township of Clark County. In 1880 he was enumerated by the census as a resident of Arkadelphia in Clark County, and in 1890 he carried Conway County, Arkansas, as the Republican candidate for Congress. In 1908 he gave the introductory sermon at the annual meeting of the Webster Baptist Association of Missouri at Seymour in Webster County, Missouri. By 1910 he was pastor of a Baptist Church in Mountain Grove, Missouri. He served as a Missouri state representative from Laclede County for one term, 1919-1921, and died at Jefferson City in Cole County, Missouri, where he is buried, on 13 July 1930.

It is not known whether this was a campaign for the Republican nomination or for the general election. The card is undated, but a photographic portrait of Langley on the card appears to show a man in his 50s or 60s. Wright County was included in Missouri’s 16th congressional district from 1902 through 1930.
