This is a political campaign card for Frank W. Jones of Stotts City, Missouri, who was the Democratic candidate for State Representative from Lawrence County in 1920.

This 5.5” by 3.25” card includes a photographic portrait of Jones and a brief statement of his principles: “I pledge myself for better schools and lower taxes. I will fight any attempt to raise valuations for tax purposes on farm lands in Missouri.” Jones was defeated by his Republican opponent in the election held on 2 November 1920.
