S0094 Young, Nathan B. (1862-1933)
Autobiography, 1923-1928
6 Folders

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

Correspondence and drafts of autobiography, "The Quest and Use of an Education," by a black educator who attended Talladega College, Oberlin College, and Selma University. Young taught at Tuskegee Institute and Atlanta University, and was president of Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Missouri.

FOLDER LIST

1. The Quest and Use of an Education, Original Manuscript
2. First Draft
3. Second Draft
4. Independent Chapters
5. Correspondence, 1928-1953
6. Articles and Speeches, 1916-1921
7. Photocopy of manuscript

INDEX

African American History
Education
Lincoln University
Tuskegee Institute
Washington, Booker T.
Young, Nathan B.