S0629 Rodgers, Bennie G.
Photograph Collection
833 Photographs

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

Bennie G. Rodgers donated this photographed collection to the Western Historical Manuscript Collection on September 5, 1998. Bennie was a great journalist and is noted and known as the Dean of Journalism; he worked for the St. Louis American Newspaper for many years. Bennie was dedicated to saving St. Louis' African American history, and was a mentor to all journalists and ordinary people of all walks of life. He was a profound advocate for the civil rights movement. Although, Bennie G. Rodgers is deceased he leaves a huge legacy for others to follow.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection documents St. Louis' African Americans photographs and their history.

FOLDER LIST

BOX 1

Series One-St. Louis's African American History

1. Play Bill, Spotlight on New York City
2. A Brief History of The African American Community
3. EEOC Compliant
4. The Black Book Club, Part of My Soul Went with Him
5. Pamphlets
6. Letters
7. Autographed pamphlet from Ivory Perry
8. Mound City Press Club's Third Annual Awards Banquet

BOX 2

Series Two-Photographs

629.1-629.263

BOX 3

629.264-629.481

BOX 4

629.482-629.712
BOX 5

679.713-629.833

INDEX

African Americans
Journalism