S0790 Berndt, Harry (1926-),
Papers, 1973-2001
8 Folders

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

Related collections:

A collection of writings by Harry "Pete" Berndt, the former director of Metro Housing Resources, including letters to the editors of various newspapers, published essays and a text on sociology. Contains photocopied notebook on astroturf products created by Berndt for Monsanto before he resigned, and a study of a block partnership with Pruitt-Igoe (see S0772, folder 540, Interview with Pete Berndt, 8/20/08). The collection also includes Berndt's May 1975 PhD dissertation for Washington University.

Arranged alphabetically.

Pete Berndt's manuscript, Only A Priest, A Biography of Monsignor John Alexander Shocklee can be found here:

www.archive.org/details/OnlyAPriestABiographyOfMonsignorJohnAlexanderShocklee

Box 1

1. Administrative Performance Case Study of St. Louis City, 11/80
3. Articles, Essays and Letters, 1973-2006 (Volume 2)

Box 2

5. Astro Specialties Business Plan
6. Bidwood #9, The Story of a Block Partnership in Pruitt-Igoe by John Lyons

8. PhD dissertation: The Community Development Corporation As A Response To Poverty by Harry Edward Berndt, a dissertation presented to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of Washington University In Partial Fulfillment Of The Requirements For The Degree Of Doctor Of Philosophy, May 1975.

INDEX

Berndt, Pete
Housing
Monsanto
Pruitt-Igoe
Sociology