Anna Agris and Leah Millman donated the Anna Agris papers in 1985-86.

Anna Agris (nee. Agress) was born in St. Louis in 1906. She began her study of dance under Miss Agnes Cady. At the age of 19 she attended a dance camp taught by ballet masters Andreas Pavley and Serge Oukrainsky. They rewarded her performance with a job offer at the Pavley-Oukrainsky Dance School in Chicago. Anna took the job and spent the next seven years in Chicago working at the school as Andreas Pavley’s secretary. After his sudden death in 1931, she took over teaching classes until Serge Oukrainsky could return from Paris. Oukrainsky subsequently closed the school and moved to California. Anna stayed in Chicago at the Century of Progress as executive director. Anna later returned to St. Louis and formed her own dance studio. She also taught dance at St. Joseph’s Academy and the St. Louis School of the Theater. She arranged choreography for several local organizations including Catholic Charities of America, the American Legion, and the International Ladies’ Garment Worker’s Union.
