S1082 St. Louis Hosmer Hall Yearbook, (C. 1904 - 1936), 1909
1 BOX, 1 FOLDER

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shs.research@umsystem.edu.

Michaele Haynes of San Antonio, Texas donated the records on April 20, 2012.

Hosmer Hall was a girl’s school that opened after the World’s Fair in 1904. It operated in Clayton, Missouri until the Clayton School District purchased the building to use as a junior high school in 1936. Miss Louise McNair served as its principal

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This yearbook contains photographs, cartoons, illustrations and business advertisements that document the activities of the school and its students.

FOLDER LIST

1. Ivy ‘09 annual with photographs of students, cartoons, illustrations and advertisements from local businesses, 1909