This series of photographs, correspondences, and news clippings were donated by Mary Amberger of Lincoln, IL in June 2015.

The photographs are of a variety of street scenes and portraits. The newscclippings include a pieced-together edition of Charles Dickens’s “The Life of our Lord,” and the December 7th edition of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. Correspondence includes letters and envelopes in French between an unknown individual and the Mayor of St. Louis.

SCOPE AND CONTEXT
The photographs offer an account of fashions and style of the time. The letters offer an unknown context, and the newspaper is a special printing following the Pearl Harbor attack.
