INTRODUCTION

Letters of the Fristoe family, who came to Missouri from Stafford County, VA. Two were written by a soldier to his sister during the War of 1812. Notes were made by the donor.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were deposited with the University of Missouri by Catherine Lockett on 19 January 1946 (Accession No. 2831).

FOLDER LIST

- f. 1                    Nine letters, two written in 1812, apparently by a Baptist minister from Kentucky to his friend, Thomas Fristoe in Dumfries, Stafford County, Virginia. Two others are written by William Fristoe, a soldier in the War of 1812, to his sister Catherine, describing his camp duties and need of clothing and food.
- f. 2                    Letters from ministers L.H. Cone and George F. Adams to Miss Kitty Fristoe, written in the 1820s.
- f. 3                    Family letters and I.O.U. written prior and just following the Civil War.
