

C Clay, Green, Journal, 1861-1862
955 4 folders, photostats

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

INTRODUCTION

Green Clay, a member of the U.S. foreign service, served as secretary of legations in St. Petersburg and later in London. His journal primarily contains description of various places in Russia and England. Clay also refers to "Lincoln's fratricidal war" and gives a lengthy description of Czar Alexander II.

DONOR INFORMATION

The photostats were donated to the University of Missouri by Mrs. C.M. Clay on 16 October 1953 (Accession No. 3183).

INDEX TERMS

Subject	Folders
Alexander II, Czar of Russia (1818-1881)	3
Clay, Green	1
de Montebello, Duc	2
England, London	3
England, Stratford	3
France, Paris	3
Goodloe, William	1
Gortchacoff, Prince	1
Kenilworth	2
Russia, St. Petersburg	1
Seward, William Henry (1801-1872)	1