

C [Thurmond], Nic[holas], Letter, 1865
2143 1 folder

DIGITIZED in Civil War collection

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

INTRODUCTION

Description of Sterling Price's engagement at Boonville, MO, October 6-7, 1864. Price's retreat from Missouri, Oct. 1864. Army camps in Arkansas, the Federals, horror and grandeur of war, news of friends. Thurmond's wounds and his position teaching school on a Choctaw Indian reservation since November 28, 1864.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by C. Leo Howdeshell on 14 Sept 1962 (Accession No. _____).

INDEX TERMS

Subject	Folders
Civil War--Arkansas	1
Civil War--Missouri	1
Civil War--Missouri, Boonville	1
Indians, Choctaw	1
Indians--Education	1
Price, Sterling (1809-1867)	1
Thurmond family	1
Thurmond, Nicholas	1
Thurmond, Philip	1