

C Tyler, John Jr., Letter, 1862
2401 1 folder

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

INTRODUCTION

To William L. Yancey, Montgomery, AL, from Holly Springs, MS, Oct. 15, 1862.

Describes battles of Corinth and Hatchee River. Written by a Confederate major, the son of President Tyler. At the writing of the letter, Tyler was an aide-de-camp on General Sterling Price's staff.

See collection 477 for another copy.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by an unknown donor on _____ (Accession No. _____).

INDEX TERMS

Subject	Folders
Beauregard, Pierre Gustave Toutant (1818-1893)	1
Bragg, Braxton (1817-1876)	1
Civil War--Battle of Corinth, Mississippi	1
Confederate States of America. Army	1
Grant, Ulysses Simpson (1822-1885)	1
Hebert, (Louis)	1
Hurlbut, Stephen Augustus (1815-1882)	1
Lovell, (Mansfield) (1822-1884)	1
Maury, (Dabney Herndon) (1822-1900)	1
McPherson, (James Birdseye) (1828-1864)	1
Pemberton, John Clifford (1814-1881)	1
Price, Sterling (1809-1867)	1
Rosecrans, William Starke (1819-1898)	1
Tyler, John, Jr.	1
Van Dorn, Earl (1820-1863)	1
Yancy, William L(owndes)	1