INTRODUCTION

Correspondence, editorials, newsclippings, pamphlets, photographs, and scrapbooks dealing with Brewer's activities as publisher of the New Bedford Standard-Times in Massachusetts, his philanthropic work, and his political interests.

DONOR INFORMATION

The Brewer Papers were donated to the University of Missouri by Mary C. Brewer on 2 August 1967 (Accession No. 3733).

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Basil Brewer, son of a Methodist circuit-riding preacher, was born in Rush Hill, Missouri. After graduation from Northeast Missouri State Teachers College in 1901, he taught science in high school and studied law at the University of Chicago.

Joining the Scripps-Howard organization in 1908, he became business manager of the Cincinnati Post in 1916 and of the Cleveland Press three years later. From 1921 to 1924 he was editor and publisher of the Omaha Bee, later taking over the Capital News at Lansing, Michigan.

Arriving in New Bedford, Massachusetts, in 1931, Brewer soon purchased control of his newspapers, the New Bedford Standard-Times, Mercury and Cape Cod Standard-Times in Hyannis, Massachusetts. He also acquired several radio and television stations in the New Bedford area.

Always active in Republican politics, Brewer served as Massachusetts manager of the Robert A. Taft campaign in 1952. Brewer married Mary M. Caswell of Huntington, Indiana, in 1920.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Basil Brewer Papers are arranged into eight series: Awards; Editorials; Speeches; Robert A. Taft Campaign; Robert A. Taft Memorial; Correspondence; Pamphlets, Brochures, and Photographs; and Scrapbooks.

The Awards series, dating from 1941 to 1961, is arranged chronologically and reflects Brewer's participation in local affairs and journalism. The Editorial series is also arranged chronologically and spans the years from 1937 through 1959. Many of the editorials deal with national and international affairs and reflect Brewer's Republican beliefs. Besides the actual editorial the series often includes reader response, reprints from various newspapers, and related material. A complete list of the editorials follows the inventory. Some editorials are also in the Scrapbooks series. Consult both series.

The Speeches series is arranged chronologically. Some of the speeches deal with Communism while others were given at a variety of local events.

The Robert A. Taft Campaign series deals with the presidential primary campaign of Taft, and Brewer's work as campaign manager in Massachusetts. Arranged chronologically the series contains correspondence dealing with the organization of the campaign, schedules, newsclippings, and publicity material.

The Robert A. Taft Memorial series documents the activities of a foundation formed to develop a memorial to Taft. The series includes agenda and minutes of the meetings of the board of trustees of the foundation, material pertaining to an annual Taft Memorial Dinner, fund raising material, and items relating to the development of a Robert A. Taft Institute of Government.

The Correspondence series dates from 1932 through 1965 and covers a wide range of subjects including local affairs, the newspaper business, Republican politics, articles that Brewer was writing, and reminiscences. The Pamphlets, Brochures, and Photographs series includes items written by Brewer and other staff of the New Bedford Standard-Times, material pertaining to Massachusetts history and law, and photographs of Taft's campaign in Massachusetts

All but one of the Scrapbooks contain editorials written by Brewer, which were circulated and reprinted by newspapers all over the country. The scrapbooks contain (unless otherwise noted) the editorials and correspondence from readers reacting to them. They are arranged chronologically by date of the original publication of the editorial. Some of the editorials also appear in the Editorials series. The folders in which they appear are listed at the end of the volume description in the folder list.
