INTRODUCTION

These records contain pamphlets and newspapers gathered during student strike and anti-war moratorium at University of Missouri-Columbia, October 15, 1969. Materials present various views and positions regarding U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia and student attitudes toward this involvement.

DONOR INFORMATION

The records were donated to the University of Missouri by James Goodrich on 15 October 1969 (Accession No. 3829).

HISTORICAL SKETCH

On October 15, 1969, a nationwide moratorium was observed in protest against U.S. foreign policy in Southeast Asia. On many college campuses, the moratorium took the form of student strikes, teach-in sessions, and peace rallies. These materials were gathered during the moratorium activities on October 15, 1969, at the University of Missouri-Columbia, and represent a variety of views regarding the conflict. Materials include a pamphlets and newspapers sponsored by Young Americans for Freedom that criticizes the anti-war movement; an agenda for the peace rally, plus a leaflet supporting the student strike.
