INTRODUCTION
A collection of field, commercial, and private label recordings, interviews, newsletters, brochures, broadsides, music, video cassettes, and correspondence of the association. Materials are added periodically, filed and indexed in the order they are received.

DONOR INFORMATION
The Missouri State Old Time Fiddlers Association Collection was donated to the University of Missouri by the Missouri State Old Time Fiddlers Association. See the information folder for complete accession information.

HISTORICAL SKETCH
The Missouri State Old Time Fiddlers Association is a nonprofit organization devoted to the preservation of "that genre of fiddle playing and accompaniment unique to the musical traditions of the State of Missouri, and known as Missouri old time fiddling ...." Its members seek to provide information and assistance to individuals and groups in the state who are sponsoring or organizing old time fiddling contests and events. They are also interested in "promulgating, disseminating, and otherwise popularizing Missouri old time fiddling music" through publication in written or phonographic form as well as "providing a forum for the determination of a consensus of thought among... contest participants concerning contest rules, formats, and scoring procedure." They produce an annual calendar of fiddling contests and events that is distributed to the membership.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Series J. Audio Cassettes

f. J 1  Information on the audio cassettes made from commercial records. Includes dust jacket information and copies of brochures included with some albums. Cassettes are stored separately.

a.c. 2  Continuation of audio cassette 1, field recording with Bob Holt. Side 1 includes Hell Among the Yearlings, Jackson's Hornpipe, Dubuque, Eighth of January, Flop-Eared Mule, Forked Deer, Ozark Moon, Got a Little Home to Go to (AE- AE), Sally Goodin (AEEA), Cotton-Eyed Joe (AEEA), Wolves A-Howlin' (AE- AE), Rattlesnake (AEEA), Bear-creek Sally Goodin (AEAC#), The Old Still- house (AEAC#), Lost Indian (AEAC#), Jerusalem Ridge, Snowshoes, Ragtime Annie, Liberty, Ozark Moon and Carroll County Blues.

Side 2 includes Oak Pic Waltz, Seamus O'Brien Waltz, Johnny Run the Jug Around, Sleepy-Eyed Joe, Festival Waltz, Forgotten Waltz, Bully of the Town, Billy in the Lowground, Missouri Fever/Knockin' at Your Door, Sally Went Huntin', Tennessee Wagoner, Laughing Boy, Virginia Darling, Katy Hill, Sally Johnson, Santa Claus, Echoes of the Ozarks, When You and I Were Young, Maggie; Fiddler's Dream, Texas Quickstep, Comin' Down from Denver, Durham's Reel, Westphalia Waltz, Arkansas Turnback, and Whiskey Before Breakfast.

a.c. 3  Commercial recording Arhoolie #5027, of Harry Choates' 1946-1949 songs. Original recordings were on 78 r.p.m. records made by Bill Quinn in Houston, Texas. Songs on side 1 include Allons a Lafayette, Basile Waltz, Cajun Hop, Port Arthur Waltz, Harry Choates Special, It Won't be Long, Wrong Keyhole, and Draggin the Bow. On side 2 are Poor Hobo, Louisiana, Devil in the Bayou, Grand Mamow, Lawtell Waltz, Harry Choates Blues, Chere Meon, and Louisiana Boo- gie.

Band members on side 1 include Johnnie Mae Smirle Manuel, piano; Joe Manuel, banjo; B.D. Williams, bass; and Eddie Pursley, guitar. On side 2 in most songs the band is similar, but adds Ron Ray "Pee Wee" Lyons on steel guitar. In at least one song, Louisiana Boogie, Julius "Papa Ciaro" Lampez replaces Lyons on steel guitar. Additional information from the album jacket is available in folder J 1.

Commercial recording, County Records 405, of The Hill Billies, a band credited with giving its name to hillbilly music. It was organized at Galax, Virginia, in the late spring of 1924 with Alonzo Elvis "Tony" Alderman, Joe and Al Hopkins, and John Rector as original members.

The album includes, side 1, Johnson Boys, Cindy, Fisher's Hornpipe, Soldier's Joy Medley, Silly Bill, and Black Eyed Susie. On side 2 are Sally Ann, Bristol Tennessee Blues, Cluck Old Hen, C.C. &O #558, Texas Gals, and Round Town Gals. Additional information from the album jacket and a pamphlet are available in folder J 1.

a.c. 5

Field recording of Bob Walters, Alfred Grey, and Casey Jones made in Nebraska. Selections on side 1 include Bob Walters playing Five Miles Out of Town, Tennessee Wagner, Lantern in the Ditch, Little White Lies, Gilderoy, Prodigal Son, Boys Around the World, Big John McNeil, Sally Goodin, Sally Johnson, Caton's Hornpipe, two songs with no title given—the first in G and Pretty Little Widow, followed by Alfred Grey playing a tune with no title given, Peek-a-Boo Waltz, two waltzes, Buffalo Gals, and Turkey in the Straw.

Side 2 begins with Bob Walters playing Long John, Steamboat Around the Bend, Casey Jones Tune in G, Mother's Reel, Flannigan's Polka, Jump Fingers, St. Anne's Reel, Inimitable Reel, Shoot Two Bits, Money Musk, and Grey Eagle. Walters and Casey Jones then play Leddy's Hornpipe, Smith's Hornpipe, Done Gone, Comin' Down from Denver, and Granny Will Your Dog Bite. The final tunes—Devil's Dream, Bennett's Reel, Woodchopper's Breakdown, an unnamed tune, Five Miles Out of Town and another unnamed tune are played solo by Casey Jones.

A mixed recording from a tape made to be sent to Dwight Lamb while he was stationed in France in the 1950s. The first section features Bob Walters on fiddle and Dwight on accordian, playing Johnny Don't Come Home Drunk and Missouri Mud. These were apparently taped from a preexisting recording and are followed by Bob Walters playing Tugboat, Plain Swamp's Reel, Thunderbolt Hornpipe, Champion Hornpipe, Irish Reel, Drunken Wagoner, Natchez Under the Hill, Silver Lake Quadrille, Lady on the Green, and Jump Fingers. After those songs, a woman's voice announces "now Dwight's gonna' play the Durgan's Hornpipe" and the tune starts, but is cut off.

After the cut off, Dwight's father announces that it is the 8th of December and "Mary and I" are "over at Bob and Goldie's." He explains that they want to "get this finished up and get it to you by Christmas..." then he plays Eighth of January and is joined by someone playing guitar on Smith's Reel, Knockin on the Door, and Salty River Reel. There is an introduction of "Sleepy Joe" but the tape ends.
Series J. Audio Cassettes (con’d)

Side 2 begins with Sleepy-Eyed Joe, Clarinet Polka, and Fiddler's Dream after which Dwight's grandfather plays Danish Schottische on accordion. Eli Green's Cakewalk and Katy Hill follow, then someone states that there isn't much room left on the tape.

After a break another voice announces..." here we are at my place" and Bob Walters and Dwight Lamb play Woodchopper's Breakdown, Johnny Don't Come Home Drunk, and Tugboat.

The final section features Bob Walters playing Paddy on the Turnpike, Katy Hill, Fiddler's Dream, Billy Cheatum, Leather Britches, Lazy Kate, and Smith's Reel. He is accompanied by another instrument on some tunes.

Portions of the tape may have been recorded in Decamer, Nebraska. It appears that sections of it may have been recorded from records or earlier tapes.

Field recording with Bob Walters and Dwight Lamb probably made in Decamer, Nebraska, sometime in the 1950s. It is a short tape. Side 1 contains Black Mountain Rag, Friendship Waltz, Granny Will Your Dog Bite, Billy in the Lowground, Miller's Reel (played by Dwight Lamb), Walkin' In My Sleep, Red Apple Rag, an unnamed quadrille, and Here and There Hornpipe. There is nothing on side 2 of the tape. There is a false start, probably caused by over printing, on side 1.

Field recording with George Morris, known as "The Fiddlin Sheriff," at his home in Afton, Missouri, on 20 March 1982. The first two recordings on side 1 are Gray Eagle played by George's brother, Dave, and taped from a home disc in the family collection. These are followed by tapings of George playing Electric Hornpipe, Golden Eagle Hornpipe, Garfield's Hornpipe, Rickett's Hornpipe, and Good for the Tongue Hornpipe all from old records. Following the records George plays High Level Hornpipe, Garfield's Hornpipe, Thunder Hornpipe, Lightning Hornpipe, MacNabb's Hornpipe, Favorite Hornpipe, Nola, and Intermezzo.

The final group of tunes on side 1 were recorded from home discs made in 1952 by Roy Ethington of Columbia, Missouri. He is the guitarist on each selection. Tunes are paired as they were on the 78 r.p.m. discs: Disc #1, Poor Butterfly and I'll See You Again by George Morris and Roy Ethington; Disc #2, Waltz You Saved for Me played by George and Dave Morris with Roy Ethington and Kiss Me Again by George Morris and Roy Ethington; Disc #3, Kiss Me Goodnight and Dreamy Melody with One Rose on the flip side all played by George Morris and Roy Ethington. Side 2 of the tape continues with Disc #4, Gray Eagle and Marmaduke's Hornpipe; and Disc #5, Devil's Dream and Sally Goodin both by Dave Morris and Roy Ethington; Disc #6, Honeysuckle Rose and Just Foolin' Around with Goodnight Waltz on the flip side by George Morris and Roy Ethington; Disc #7, Wedding Chimes by George Morris and Lightnin's Hornpipe by Dave Morris.

both with Roy Ethington; and Disc #8, (only one side taped) Kiss Me Again by Dave Morris and Roy Ethington.

a.c. 9 Interview with George Morris, "The Fiddlin' Sheriff," at his home in Afton, Missouri. Charlie Walden conducts the interview. Discussion ends about two thirds of the way through the first side. There is nothing on side 2.

a.c. 10 Commercial recording by Loyd Wanzer titled "Fold Fiddlin' left handed style." He is accompanied by his daughter, Cheryl Wanzer. Tunes on side 1 include Leather Britches, Sweet Bunch of Daisies, Gene LaTif, Bile Down the Cabbage, Wednesday Night Waltz, Rachael, Lumberjack, Wanzer's Waltz, and Newfoundland Breakdown. On side 2 Wanzer plays Sadie Hawkins, Annie Laurie, Mississipi Sawyer, Fisher's Hornpipe, Whistler's Waltz, Irish Washerwoman, Turkey in the Straw, Smokey Mountain Waltz, and Up Jumped the Devil.

a.c. 11 Commercial recording by Loyd Wanzer titled "Plain & Fancy Fiddlin' Over the Bass." He is accompanied by his daughter Cheryl Wanzer. There is a strip of tape #12 at the beginning of the tape. Tunes on side 1 include Twinkle Little Star, Maple on the Hill, Real Chicken Reel, Pacific Slope, Liberty, Fourteen Days in Georgia, Whiskey Before Breakfast, and Blue Grass Hoedown. Side 2 contains Moonshine, Marmaduke's Hornpipe, Peacock Rag, Old Folks at Home, Soldier's Joy, "C" Rag, Soapsuds, and Canadian Reel.

a.c. 12 Commercial recording County Records 401, of The Stripling Brothers titled "The Lost Child and Other Original Fiddle Tunes Recorded 1928-1936." Original recordings were on 78 r.p.m. records by Charles Nevins Stripling, fiddler, and Ira Lee Stripling, guitarist.

The album includes side 1, The Lost Child, Coal Mine Blues, Horse Shoe Bend, June Rose Waltz, Rangers Hornpipe, and Kennedy Rag. On side 2 is Wolves Howling, Pallet on the Floor, Dance all Night, Red River Waltz, Big Eyed Rabbit, and Big Footed Man in the Sandy Lot. Additional information from the album jacket is available in folder J 1.

a.c. 13 Commercial recording, County Records 407, of The Blue Ridge Highballers' 1926 recordings featuring Charley LaPrade. During the-mid 1920s the band, famous for its square dance music, consisted of Lonnie Griffith on guitar, Arthur Wells on five-string banjo, and LaPrade on violin.

The album includes side 1, Darling Child, Going Down to Lynchburg Town, Fourteen Days in Georgia, Sandy River Belle, Flop Eared Mule, and Skidd More. On side 2 are Darneo, Soldier's Joy, Wish to the Lord I Had Never Been Born, Round Town Girls, Under the Double Eagle, and Green Mountain Polka. Folder J 1 contains additional information from the album jacket.

The album includes, side 1, Green River March, Southern No. 111, Callahan Rag, Everybody Two-Step, Step High Waltz, and McCarroll's Breakdown. On side 2 are Free a Little Bird-1930 Model, Hometown Blues, Roane County Rag, Tennessee Waltz, Alabama Trot and Johnson City Rag. Additional information from the album jacket is available in folder J 1.

a.c. 15  Field recording with Cyril Stinnett made in Oregon, Holt County, Missouri, in 1980. Stinnett plays fiddle and talks with Chris German and Bill Shull about his music while a clock ticks in the background.

Tunes on side 1 include Dry and Dusty, Big John McNeil, Brenda's Reel, Purcell's Reel (Trouble on the Wabash), Lady on the Green, Inimitable Reel, Bennett's Reel, Rickett's Hornpipe, London Hornpipe, Lamplighter's Hornpipe, Run Nigger Run, Mississippi Sawyer, Angle Cain Tune, Big Horn Cattle, and an unknown quadrille learned from Cyril's dad.

Side 2 begins with two unidentified tunes followed by Duncan's Reel, Silver Lake Quadrille, Tennessee Wagoner, Sugar in the Coffee, Flop-Eared Mule, Forked Deer, Whiskey Before Breakfast, Red Bird Reel, Oklahoma Redbird, Bluewater Hornpipe, Thunderbolt Hornpipe, Red Apple Rag, Eber Atkin's Tune, Dance Around Molly, Old Melinda, and Hell Among the Yearlings.

a.c. 16  Continuation of audio cassette 15, field recording with Cyril Stinnett. Side 1 includes Old Mother McCarthy, Knock at the Door, Fat Meat and Dumplings, Mother's Reel, Leather Britches, an unidentified quadrille, Niagara Hornpipe, Eighth of January, Life in the Finland Woods, Country Waltz, Rustic Dance, Fiddler's Waltz, Durang's Hornpipe, an unidentified Bob Walters tune, Bill Cheatam, Long John, and Sally Johnson.

Side 2 begins again with Sally Johnson then continues with Katy Hill, Smith's Hornpipe, a waltz learned from Cyril's dad, another waltz in the key of G, Carrolton County Breakdown, Brilliancy, Devil's Dream, Drunken Wagoner, Trot Along My Honey, Coming Through the Rye, Caton's Hornpipe, Buffalo Gals, Flowers of Edinburgh, Fort Smith, a schottische, Dry Knob, and Turkey Knob.

a.c. 17-18  Tapes of the 1983 Boonville Fiddlers Contest held on March 19, in Laura Speed Elliot Auditorium. On side 1 of tape seventeen Charlie Walden of Columbia plays Skater's Waltz and Angus Campbell, an unidentified fiddler plays Bile the Cabbage, Bob Hagen of Columbia plays Red Fox Waltz and Salty River Reel, Spence Galloway of Columbia plays Durang's Hornpipe and Our Last Waltz, Taylor McBaine of Columbia plays Grey Eagle and Clark Waltz, Bob Atchison of v.c. 1-2 Video tapes of the community dance at Tina, Carroll County, Missouri, recorded on 16 July, 1983 at the Community Hall. Sponsored by the Missouri National Fiddlers Association headed by Glen Keller of Route 2, Braymer, Missouri, the dance has been occurring on a weekly basis since 1964. The present sponsors were an outgrowth of the now defunct Midwest Fiddlers Association formed in 1964 by Jake Hughes of Ludlow, Missouri. The dance is open to the public and supported by passing the hat at each event. The main group of dancers was featured in the late 1970s at Frontier Folklife Festival at the Gateway Arch in St. Louis. Originally recorded in 1/2" format then duped onto 3/4" tape, the recording was made possible by funding through the Weldon Spring Fund of the University of Missouri through the Missouri Cultural Heritage Center. Camera operators were Mike Everman, William A. Shull, and Charlie Walden.

v.c. 3 Video tape of the Cope Ashlock Invitational Live Radio Fiddling Championship on 9 April 1989 at the Cultural Heritage Center, University of Missouri, Columbia, and broadcast live on KOPN-FM. The championship was dedicated to John Cope Ashlock. Fiddlers who played for the opening were Jimmy Gilmore, Travis Inman, Kelly Jones, Junior Marriott, Taylor McBaine, Pete McMahon, Nile Wilson and invited accompanists, Kenny Applebee, Wes Brown, Jack Deck.

v.c. 4 Video recording by station KRCG in Jefferson City of July 17, 1987 ceremony at which Governor John Ashcroft signed HB 630, officially making the fiddle Missouri's "state instrument."

v.c. 5-10 Six video cassettes of the Bethel Fiddle Fest, held June 7-12, 1987 in Bethel, Missouri.
