MACHETTE-SCOTT FAMILY PAPERS

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, Research Center-Columbia. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shsmo.org.

Dates: 1798-1936
Creator: Machette family
Scott family
Collection Size: 1.8 cubic feet

Introduction
The papers of a family that lived in St. Louis, St. Charles, and Fulton, Missouri were largely compiled by Margaret Baker Graham, a descendant of the family, for her book Victorian America: A Family Record of the Heartland and an unfinished sequel. Included are letters, photographs, news clippings, receipts, ephemera, and miscellaneous materials documenting the family from the early nineteenth century through the 1930s.

Donor Information
The collection was donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Mary Kate Saltzman on 14 June 2011. Additions to the collection were made by Samuel Graham on 18 October 2013 and Margaret Sue Scott Peek on 23 August 2018.

Note: See CA6006 for additional Machette-Scott Family Papers.
