This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shsmo.org.

Introduction

The papers of William Lincoln Garver, an architect and leader in the Socialist movement in Missouri, contain writings by Garver, along with some family materials, correspondence, and miscellaneous material. Garver was the Socialist candidate for Missouri governor in 1908.

Box List

Box 1
Photograph, correspondence, and clipping, 1929-1953, n.d.
Architectural drawings
Reaves/Knight family—Correspondence, poems, and miscellaneous
Manuscript, “Brother of the Third Degree” by William L. Garver (3 folders)
Childhood
Musings on Socialist crusade in Missouri
“Topolobampo, or Daddy’s Story of Mexico” by Will L. Garver, 1890 (2 folders)
Biography of William L. Garver, Sr. by Dr. E. Eugene Nutter

Box 2
Socialist writings
“Labor-Power versus Man-Power: A Study in Efficiency and Socialism” by Will L. Garver, Civil Engineer
Brother of the Third Degree by Will L. Garver, 1894
Communist Manifesto by Marx and Engels and No Compromise, No Political Trading by Wilhelm Liebknecht (1 volume)