Introduction

Approximately 35 cubic feet and 24 scrapbooks

The Blevins Davis Papers contains research materials, scripts, plays, photographs, printed materials, correspondence, scrapbooks, and memorabilia of Davis, an internationally prominent playwright and producer.

Blevins Davis, an internationally known theatrical producer and playwright, grew up in Independence, Missouri, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Davis. Blevins was a long-time friend of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Truman and their daughter Margaret. He attended the old Kansas City Junior College, Princeton University, and the University of Missouri, graduating in 1925. Following graduation, Davis taught at William Chrisman High School in Independence, Missouri. He procured postgraduate work through Yale University and later became supervisor of educational programs at National Broadcasting Company (NBC) in New York.

Davis was married in 1946 to Mrs. Margaret Sawyer Hill, widow of a railroad executive. The former Mrs. Hill was an heiress, social leader, and art patron in New York. After a brief marriage, Mrs. Davis suffered a heart attack and died at St. Luke’s Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri, on March 18, 1948. Davis became heir of her nine million dollar fortune. He returned to Independence, Missouri, where he rebuilt and refurbished his residence, Glendale Farm.

In 1949, Blevins Davis purchased an estate, Claremont, in Colorado Springs, Colorado, which he renamed “Trianon”. At that time, he was president of the Ballet Theater of New York and member of the board of directors of the American National Theater Association. Also in 1949, Davis presented the first American production of “Hamlet” at the Elsinore Castle in Denmark. He also produced “Porgy and Bess” with an all-black cast starring William Warfield, Leontyne Price, and Cab Calloway. In 1952, Davis sold “Trianon” to the Sisters of St. Francis Seraph.

Davis moved to Lima, Peru, in the mid 1950’s. He made his home there for a decade. While on a business trip to London in 1971, Blevins Davis suffered a fatal heart attack. Much of his wealth had been donated during his lifetime to the performing arts.
