Native Sons and Daughters of Greater Kansas City Records

[Native Sons Archives]

1931-2011

21 cubic feet

Organizational records of a historical society for Kansas City area history. Includes minutes and Secretaries' files; President's files; Treasurers' files; membership records; Curators' files of correspondence with researchers; general correspondence; historical information; and other materials related to the operation of the organization.

HISTORY:

The Native Sons and Daughters of Greater Kansas City was organized on January 20, 1932, and incorporated as a non-profit on January 3, 1938. The Native Sons is devoted to the history of people, events, and landmarks significant to the early and current development of the city. Membership is extended to men aged 21 or older who were born in the greater Kansas City area.

The Native Sons Archives began collecting actively around 1940, but received the majority of their collections between 1950 and 1963. The Archives had offices at City Hall, and in 1965, an agreement was signed to move the collection to the Missouri Valley Room of the Kansas City Public Library.

PROVENANCE:

These records were part of accession KA0590, received on July 17, 1990. Additional accessions were received as follows: KA0779 on November 19, 1993; KA0806 on April 21, 1994; KA1214 (Cameron) on November 13, 2002; KA1275 on April 12, 2004; KA1346 and KA1347 on May 9, 2005; KA1436 from Joe Vaughan on February 14, 2006; KA1434 from Dan Creasy on February 10, 2006; KA1812 from Joe Vaughan on June 28, 2010; KA1813 from Gary Hicks on December 10, 2008; KA1819 from Gary Hicks on July 8, 2010; KA1840 from Joe
