

Charles Francis Adams, Jr., c.1910. From Charles Francis Adams, 1835-1915: An Autobiography, Boston, 1916. Courtesy Massachusetts Historical Society.

Nathaniel Thayer, 1808-1883, c.1880. The co-founder of the investment firm of John E. Thayer and Brother, Nathaniel Thayer was among the principal New England investors in Western railroads. Courtesy Massachusetts Historical Society, Boston.

Nathaniel Thayer, Jr., 1851-1911. The son of the elder Nathaniel Thayer responsible for so much investment in Kansas City. From The National Cyclopaedia of American Biography, New York, 1921.

Thayer Building, NW Comer 9th St. & Broadway, 1992. Built by and named for Nathaniel Thayer, Jr.

